

Contents

The 80s – Strawberry Success

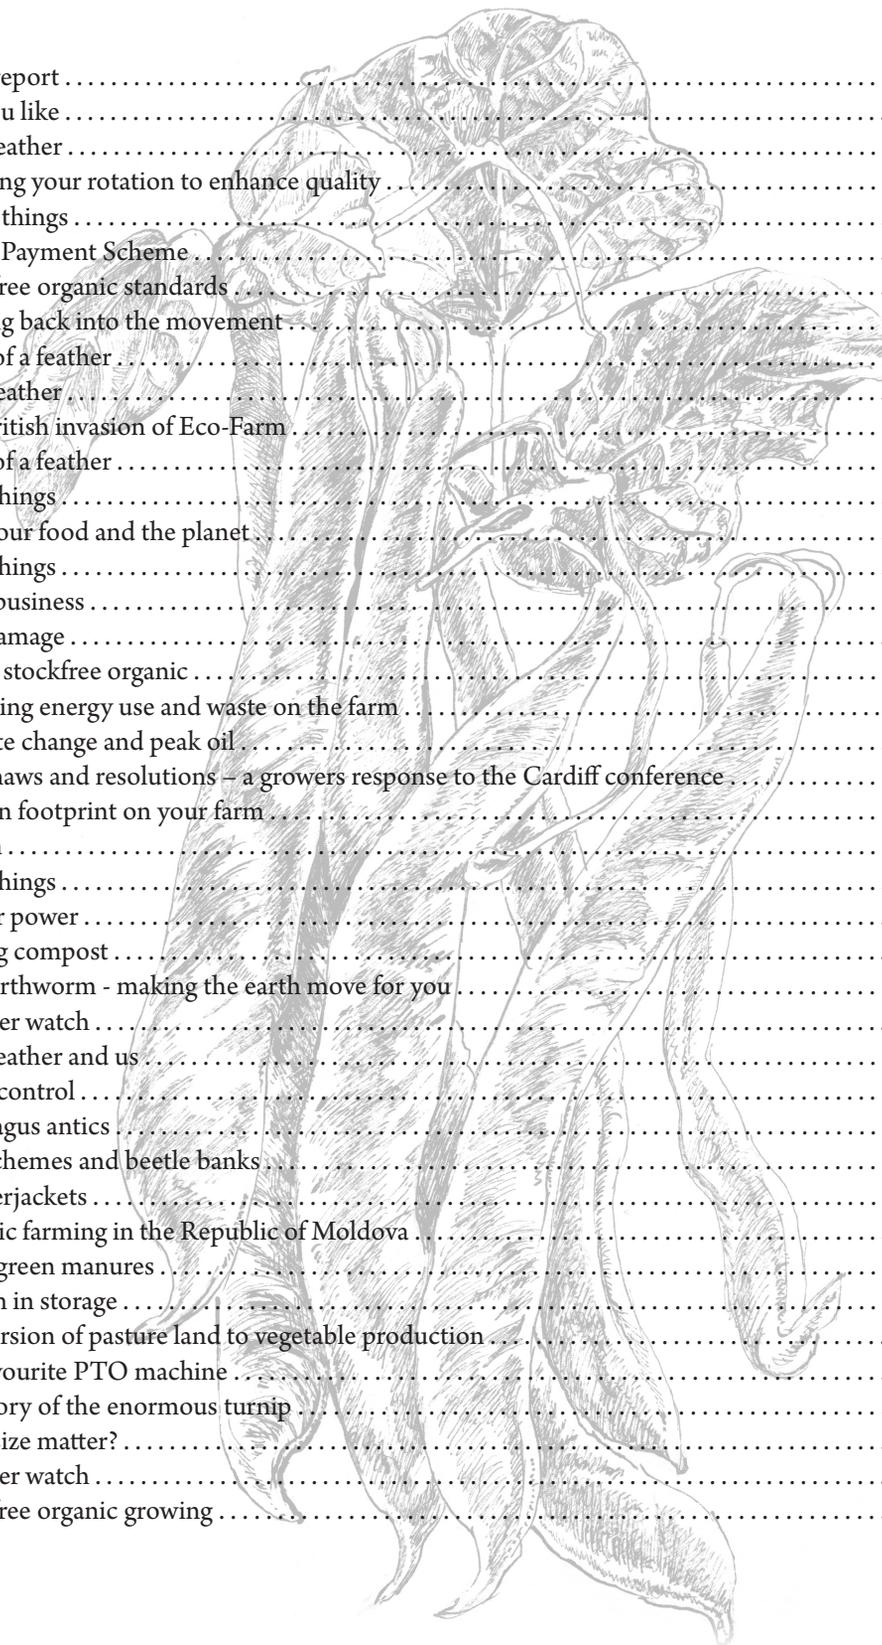

Strawberry success	15
Alpine strawberries	17
Organic strawberry growing	19
Strawberry varieties	23
It beats the lot	27
DIY cloches offer early strawberry profits	31
Shelter on the farm offers better crop yields	34
Extra quotas for organic potatoes	39
Field scale peas without sticks	40
Growing fruit and vegetables organically	42
Taking stock of German systems	49
Grow your own plants	52

The 90s – All in a Box

Send them a wire	56
Flatworms	58
Organic plant raising	59
Organic community in Iceland	61
Veg bag newsletter	63
Life on the farm in January, or NOT the Archers!	64
LET'S work it out	65
Garden notes and training opportunity for growers	66
Garden notes on drought	67
Welcome respite	68
A good moan	70
The weather	71
Genetically engineered foods	72
Pesticide residues	74

The Noughties – Crisis, what Crisis

Organic and vegetarian?	77
Genetically modified crops	80
The weather	82
Beating the blight	83
Crop reports	84
The weather	85
What do farmers and growers really need from a soil test?	88
A 'systems approach' to organic production	89
Crop report	94
Marketing fruit and vegetables through a Box Scheme	95

Crop report	102
Spuds u like	103
The weather	105
Planning your rotation to enhance quality	106
Fruity things	109
Single Payment Scheme	110
Stockfree organic standards	112
Moving back into the movement	113
Birds of a feather	117
The weather	118
The British invasion of Eco-Farm	119
Birds of a feather	124
Field things	125
You, your food and the planet	126
Field things	128
Fishy business	130
Bird damage	131
Going stockfree organic	131
Reducing energy use and waste on the farm	133
Climate change and peak oil	138
Rickshaws and resolutions – a growers response to the Cardiff conference	140
Carbon footprint on your farm	143
Couch	146
Field things	147
Flower power	149
Potting compost	153
The earthworm - making the earth move for you	155
Weather watch	158
The weather and us	160
Weed control	161
Asparagus antics	164
Box Schemes and beetle banks	167
Leatherjackets	169
Organic farming in the Republic of Moldova	170
Relay green manures	175
Squash in storage	178
Conversion of pasture land to vegetable production	181
My favourite PTO machine	183
The story of the enormous turnip	184
Does size matter?	187
Weather watch	189
Stockfree organic growing	190

The Teens – Weather We Like It or Not

Woodchip-base growing media	195
Composting woodchips	197
Docks	199
Weather we like it or not	201
Beat the Hungry Gap	205
Broad beans	208
Organic fruit and its provenance	210
Looking at your soil	211
Maintaining fertility stockfree	214
On badgers	215
On spuds and birds	217
Varieties, seeds and trials	219
What a difference a year makes	220
Trees and birds	221
Growing strawberries as a beginner	222
Winter	227
Ugly produce	228
Strawberry trials - the results	230
Runner beans	232
Biodiversity at work – a ‘systems approach’ to working with Nature	235
Lovely day	238
New Year resolutions	239
Sowing overwinter crops	240
Strawberries - the story continues...	241
Twenty one years later...	244
It may contain soil	246
Seeing the wood from the trees or agroforestry in a horticulture system for Ireland	248
Sowing the seeds of success	251
Spring has sprung!	255
Mind the gap	256
Direct seeding of vegetables	258
Do you tweet?	260
What has research ever done for me?	262
Save Our Soils	264
Between Christmas and New Year	265
40 years of growing	267
New Zealand spinach	269
Gambling on the weather – place your bets	270
Beetle banks	272
Winter/spring crops for sowing now and into the autumn	273
Afterword: What’s in it for the future?	276
List of illustrations	278